NFA Cup 2026 Finals set to ignite Independence Stadium on Saturday, 27th June 2026

The Namibian Football Association invites football supporters, corporate partners, and the general public to the highly anticipated NFA Cup Finals taking place on Saturday, 27th June 2026, at the Independence Stadium in Windhoek.

The grand finale of Namibia's flagship knockout football product promises a day of thrilling action as the country's top clubs battle for silverware and glory.

The Men's Final will see the Clever Boys of the University of Namibia, UNAM FC take on the ambitious KK Palace FC in what promises to be a captivating showdown. In the Women's Final, defending champions NDF Mighty Gunners Ladies will face off against the determined Khomas NamPol Ladies, with both teams eager to etch their names into the history books of this unprecedented football competition. Adding further excitement to the competition, is the Futsal Namibia Semi-Finals and Finals will also be played on the same day, offering supporters a full bouquet of football featuring both traditional football and the fast-paced indoor version of the beautiful game at the Windhoek Showground Plaza.

The NFA Cup Final is more than a football match. It is a celebration of Namibian football excellence, talent, unity, and community spirit. Fans are encouraged to arrive early with kick-off of the first fixture starting 09H00 and be part of an unforgettable sporting spectacle.

Entrance Fee: N$30 per person
Venue: Independence Stadium, Windhoek
Date: Saturday, 27th June 2026
